Description

Manfred Herden Immobilien is selling a plot of land in Bugar.

It has an area of 1667 square metres. There is no building licence yet, no building project, nothing yet. It is designated as Rustico

(No Urbano) and is still for agricultural use, so no building land yet. You must enquire about this yourself with your architect by making a preliminary building enquiry at the building authority in Inca. As all neighbouring plots are also built on, I assume that there will be a positive decision.
